

Operation Round-Up® Post Award Reporting Form

Receiving funding from FreeState Electric Cooperative's Operation Round-Up® program is only a part of your relationship with us as an award winner. In order to understand your impact through our investment, build our knowledge of community issues and communicate back to our members we require those awarded monies to report back their progress and impact in the community. Please make sure to send this signed and dated post award reporting form back to FreeState Electric Cooperative in order to be considered for future funding requests.
